

Please keep K-love on the air. It provides positive family friendly music and information to the Chesapeake area. To take this away would leave a large void in the family friendly radio for this area. It also provides free public information for Churches in the area.